

OUR SPLENDID FAMILY PEDIGREE

Although most genealogy inevitably focusses on the surname of the chosen family this provides a very limited view of family history, largely because it ignores the contribution from the female lines and as a consequence gives a very narrow perspective. Of course my name is Fiddian and so I want to know all about the early Fiddians, but if I want to know about my makeup (or DNA for that matter) I need to look at all my ancestors who have contributed to making me what I am. That can prove quite frustrating since many of us family historians get involved because our name is a bit unusual and we may not want to trawl through millions of Smiths just because our Fiddian ancestor married one. As luck would have it we seem to have had plenty of unusual names in our pedigree as well and so it has proved to be very rewarding to meander back through the generations.

The next challenge comes from the simple mathematics of such generations which double the number of ancestors each step back in time. So by the time we have arrived at our 4x great-grandparents we hope to find 64 of them and if we are fortunate enough to get back to the 16th century we might find up to 1024 8x great-grandparents. Assuming we are reasonably successful in going back that far, we are then left with the question of how to present the significant amounts of data to our audience. I'm not aware that anyone has yet developed a suitable way to analyse and display such results concisely, so I will attempt to tell the story my own way.

1. My Grandparents

As expected I have four grandparents in this generation of my family pedigree, Fiddian and White on the paternal side and Roberts and Brooksbank on the maternal side. Two of these names (Fiddian and Brooksbank) are actually unique, by which I mean that all persons with that name belong to the same clan. Whilst the other two names are very common, all four have been traced back to the 16th century or beyond. Indeed we can identify my Fiddian 10x great-grandfather, my White 11x great-grandfather, my Roberts 12x great-grandfather and my Brooksbank 21x great-grandfather, and those of my siblings. My grandparents are tabulated below:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
James Victor Fiddian	1887	India	Surgeon, GP	Memoirs
E M Doris White	1897	Cambridge	Mother, H/W	17 inch waist
Hubert Roberts	1891	Yorkshire	Clerk	Gassed in WW1
Marion B Brooksbank	1891	Yorkshire	Dressmaker	Lived to 99

The four families are documented back to my 10x great-grandparents in Tables 1 and 2, whilst their stories have been told elsewhere in greater detail.

2. My Great-Grandparents

Naturally, I have eight of these and the new family names are Vasey, Bell, Sykes and Scurry. For two of these (Bell and Scurry) we can only trace them back to my 6x great-grandfathers, the others to my 7x (Sykes) and 8x (Vasey) great-granddads. My four great-grandfathers and their wives are given below:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
James Paull Fiddian	1853	Northumberland	Judge in India	Died at 42
Ella Louise Vasey	1859	Australia	Mother, H/W	Granny Pink
George F White	1872	Cambridge	Boot Maker	Dairy Farmer

George W Roberts	1856	Yorkshire	Druggist	Registrar
Jane Sykes	1853	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	Slaithwaite
Wright Brooksbank	1852	Yorkshire	Stone Mason	Farmer
Emily Scurry	1852	Essex	Mother, H/W	Laundress

The Vasey family are detailed in Table 3 and discussed elsewhere.

3. My 2x Great-Grandparents

As the numbers increase it may be easier to consider this generation separately as paternal and maternal branches:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
Samuel Fiddian	1804	Staffordshire	Wesleyan Minister	Drowned at 76

Grace Burall Paull	1811	Cornwall	Mother, H/W	13 children
Thomas Vasey	1826	Yorkshire	Draper	Migrated to Oz
Elizabeth Brinsden	1823	Devon	Mother, H/W	Migrated to Oz
Thomas E White	1842	Cambridge	Shoe/Boot Maker	Dairyman
Elizabeth Cann	1846	Cambridge	Servant	Mother, H/W
John Bell	1839	Cambridge	Farm Labourer	Cherry Hinton
Mary Ann Moden	1841	Cambridge	Mother, H/W	Laundress

For the new family names above we traced them back to my 6x (Cann), my 8x (Moden), my 11x (Brinsden) and my 14x (Paull) great-grandads. Whilst for the new names below we have managed only to get back to my 6x (Graham and Taylor) and 7x (Dransfield and Armitage) great-grandfathers. The Brinsden family are documented in Table 3 whilst the Paull family can be found in Table 4, traced from my 11x and 14x great-grandfathers respectively. The maternal branch looks like this:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
John Roberts	1825	Yorkshire	Pharmacist	Surgeon
Priscilla Graham	1835	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	Lived to 92
Joseph Sykes	1812	Yorkshire	Coal Merchant	J Sykes & Sons
Hannah Dransfield	1814	Lancashire	Mother, H/W	Slaithwaite
John Brooksbank	1818	Yorkshire	Hand Loom Weaver	Farmer
Eilzabeth Armitage	1821	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	Almondbury
William Scurry	1824	Essex	Farm Labourer	Bailiff/Groom
Eliza Taylor	1825	Essex	Mother, H/W	Braintree

4. My 3x Great-Grandparents

There are many more names with this generation, most notably the Linklater family, detailed in Table 5 (from my 12x great-grandad), who can be traced back to my 16x great-grandfather on Orkney.

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
William Fiddian	1772	Worcestershire	W Fiddian & Son	Brass Founder
Catherine Showell	1771	Warwickshire	Mother, H/W	11 children
Alexander Paull	1783	Cornwall	Doctor	Surgeon
Susanna Burall	1791	Cornwall	Mother, H/W	Camborne

George Vasey	1791	Yorkshire	Timber Merchant	Builder/Joiner
Margaret Linklater	1789	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	7 children
James Brinsden	1780	Wiltshire	Timber Dealer	Earl's Bailiff
Mary Arnold	1797	Wiltshire	Mother, H/W	8 children
Thomas White	1807	Norfolk	Boot/Shoe Maker	Publican
Mary Pilbrow	1801	Suffolk	Mother, H/W	Died at 50
William Cann	1814	Hertfordshire	Baker	Barnet
Mary Browning	1821	London	Mother, H/W	Lived to 88
Charles Bell	1816	Cambridge	Farm Labourer	Fen Ditton
Hannah Balls	1815	Cambridge	Mother, H/W	Died at 37
William Moden	1807	Cambridge	Farm Labourer	Cherry Hinton
Sarah Fowler	1804	Cambridge	Mother, H/W	9 children

As above there are another 8 new surnames from my maternal side of the family:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
John Roberts	1790	Yorkshire	Doctor	Surgeon, GP
Susannah Shaw	1796	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	7 kids, died at 34
George Graham	1809	Yorkshire	Architect	Timber Merchant
Martha Denton	1809	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	Clayton by Bradford
Thomas Sykes	1779	Yorkshire	Hand Loom	Woollen Weaver
Elizabeth Beaumont	1780	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	Died at 42
John Dransfield	1786	Yorkshire	-	Died at 54
Betty Buckley	1784	Yorkshire	Mother, H/W	Died at 42
William Brooksbank	1788	Yorkshire	Farmer	Weaver

Ann Tiffen	1790	Essex	Mother, H/W	Tailoress
Joseph Taylor	1801	Essex	-	Steeple Bumpstead
Mary Potter	1802	Essex	Mother, H/W	Broomfield

It is already evident that three quarters of my mother's ancestors came from Yorkshire whereas my father's ancestors were much more scattered from around England. There is, however some similarity in the types of occupation for each side of the family except that weaving was more specific to Yorkshire.

5. My 4x Great-Grandparents

Sadly we know the occupations of fewer of this generation as they had mostly died before the censuses began:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note

The Dunkin family can be found in Table 5, the Syrett family in Table 6 and the King family in Table 7. As above fewer occupations are known for the maternal side of the family:

6. My 5x Great-Grandparents

Since there are 128 of these, with two ladies only identified by Christian name it is too cumbersome to list all of them here, so we need to be more selective (the full list is shown in Table 8). In addition many of them only go back one or two generations at most and there are no details about their occupations. I have therefore chosen the twelve couples with most information who represent almost 20% of my 5x great-grandparents:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
Thomas Fiddian	1711	Warwicks	Nail Master	Lived to 90
Sarah Cooper	1709	Warwicks	Mother of 7	Lived to 81
John King	1723	Warwicks	-	Back to 1560
Catherine Collins	1721	Warwicks	Mother	Died at 32
Alexander Paull	1707	Cornwall	Yeoman	Died at 47
Catherine Henwood	1715	Cornwall	Mother of 5	Lived to 92
Haughton Dunkin	1712	Cornwall	Yeoman	Back to 1584
Jane Polkinghorne	1716	Cornwall	Mother of 6	Lived to 84
William Jennings	1736	Cornwall	-	St Ives
Elizabeth Hockin	1736	Cornwall	Mother of 3	Back to 1430
Richard Vasey	1712	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Back to 1575
Ann Wallis	1713	Yorkshire	Mother of 6	Back to 1565
William Linklater	1732	Orkney	Fisherman?	Back to 1400
Helen Muir	1735	Orkney	Mother	Married at 16
Charles Brinsden	1709	Wiltshire	Rector	Son of Gent
Elizabeth Clarke	1710	Gloucs	Mother	Painswick
Philip White	1715	Norfolk	Innkeeper	Back to 1515
Tabitha Bush	1711	Norfolk	Mother	Back to 1565
William Syrett	1755	Suffolk	-	Back to 1540
Mary Hersey	1759	Suffolk	Mother	Wickham Skeith
Henry Roberts	1732	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Back to 1505
Alice Procter	1733	Lancashire	Mother of 9	Goosnargh
William Brooksbank	1720	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Back to 1336
Mary Lund	1727	Yorkshire	Mother of 9	Sowerby Bridge

It should be noted that 83% of these selected families are ancestors of my paternal grandfather, but we will continue to follow them back in time. The Polkinghorne family (Table 4); Henwood, Hockin and Clarke families (Table 6); and Cooper, Collins and Wallis families (Table 7) are further documented.

7. My 6x Great-Grandparents

So far I have identified 244 of my 256 6x great-grandparents (95%, Table 8), but as before we will only look at a selection of these:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
Thomas Fiddian	1677	Warwicks	Yeoman	Died at 44
Samuel Cooper	1675	Warwicks	Yeoman?	Back to 1535
Thomas King	1692	Warwicks	Middle Class?	In Coventry
Edward Collins	1680	Warwicks	Middle Class?	Back to 1510
Alexander Paull	1675	Cornwall	Yeoman	Lived to 83
William Henwood	1677	Cornwall	Yeoman?	Back to 1535
John Dunkin	1688	Cornwall	Husbandman	Back to 1584
William Polkinghorne	1687	Cornwall	Yeoman?	Back to 1455
James Hockin	1704	Cornwall	Yeoman?	Back to 1430
Thomas Vasey	1685	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Back to 1575
Richard Wallis	1696	Yorkshire	Yeoman?	Back to 1565
William Linklater	1705	Orkney	'Yeoman'	Last landowner
John Brinsden	1676	Wiltshire	Gentleman	Rector, MP
Richard Clarke	1676	Gloucs	Yeoman?	Back to 1525
Philip White	1683	Norfolk	Farmer	Back to 1515
John Syrett	1727	Suffolk	Farmer	Back to 1540
James Roberts	1706	Herefords	Yeoman	Back to 1505
William Brooksbank	1670	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Back to 1336

For half of my 6x great-grandfathers tabled above there are no definite occupations, but there are several factors which lead to the conclusion that most of them were of the social class of Yeoman or better (landed gentry). In particular it is very unusual to be able to trace families back beyond about 1550 unless they or their ancestors were of notable standing. Also families tended to marry into other families of a similar social standing and finally any wealth was usually passed down through the male line. Since the 18 men in the table represent 36 families, this is only about 15% of all my known 6x great-grandparents and so may not be very representative of my whole family, but does represent almost  $\frac{1}{4}$  of my paternal ancestry.

8. My 7x Great-Grandparents

Sadly the number of families that can be traced this far back have been reduced and so we can identify only 232 (45%) of my possible 512 7x great-grandparents. For 35 7x great-grandmothers only a Christian name was found and so the number of fully identified members of this generation are, actually 197 out of 512 (38%).

9. My 8x Great-Grandparents

Fears about coping with a thousand or so members of this generation were clearly unfounded. So far I have found only 130 out of 1024 possible ancestors (13%) this far back in time, with surnames available for many of them (86%). The full list is given in Table 9 but I will review in detail here only the 18 surnames that were presented previously:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
John Fiddian	1594	Warwicks	Yeoman	8 children
John Cooper	1602	Warwicks	Yeoman?	Southam
Thomas King	1629	Warwicks	Middle Class?	Coventry
Edward Collins	1596	Warwicks	Middle Class?	Kingsbury
John Thomas Paull	1622	Cornwall	Yeoman	Died at 37
Robert Henwood	1601	Cornwall	Middle Class?	Bodmin Moor
John Dunkin	1624	Cornwall	Yeoman?	Camborne
Henry Polkinghorne	1632	Cornwall	Yeoman	Illogan
Vincent Hockin	1633	Cornwall	Yeoman	Lived to 72
Thomas Vasey	1605	Yorkshire	Yeoman	4 yeoman kids
Ralph Wallis	1629	Yorkshire	Yeoman?	West Heslerton
Alexander Linklater	1632	Orkney	'Yeoman'	Suitor grandad
John Brinsden	1620	Wiltshire	Gentleman	Wootton Bassett
John Clarke	1631	Gloucs	Yeoman?	Hartpury
James White	1634	Norfolk	Farmer?	Rector grandad
John Syrett	1659	Suffolk	Farmer?	Died at 48
James Roberts	1646	Herefords	Yeoman	Gent father
William Brooksbank	1583	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Almondbury

10. My 10x Great-Grandparents

There are still 17 of the above surnames out of a total of 60 individuals that can be traced back to my 10x great-grandparents:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
William Fiddian	1530	Cheshire?	Rector?	Coleshill
Robert Cooper	1535	Warwicks	Yeoman?	Alveston
John King	1560	Warwicks	Middle Class?	Coleshill
William Collins	1510	Warwicks	Middle Class?	Warwick
Alexander Paull	1550	Cornwall	Yeoman	Gent g dad
Nicholas Henwood	1535	Cornwall	Yeoman?	St Neot
Robert Dunkin	1557	Cornwall	Yeoman	Camborne
Stephen Polkinghorne	1561	Cornwall	Yeoman	Breage
Vincent Hockin	1571	Cornwall	Yeoman	Camborne
Ralph Wallis	1565	Yorkshire	Yeoman?	Village
Oliver Linklater	1585	Orkney	Suitor	Assizeman dad
John Brinsden	1568	Wiltshire	Yeoman	Gent son
Thomas Clarke	1560	Gloucs	Yeoman?	Village

Francis Syrett	1602	Suffolk	Farmer	Village
John Roberts	1595	Herefords	Yeoman	Gent son
William Brooksbank	1539	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Almondbury

11. My 12x Great-Grandparents

Of my 12x great-grandparents only 14 have been traced so far, with 8 of these my 12x great-grandfathers from the surnames above:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
Stephen Paull	1492	Cornwall	Gentleman	Gunwin Manor
John Dunkin	1500	Cornwall	Yeoman	Camborne
Thomas Polkinghorne	1487	Cornwall	Gentleman	Notable family
Rafe Hockin	1518	Cornwall	Churchwarden	Camborne
Magnus Linklater	1535	Orkney	Assizeman	Assizeman son
Thomas Syrett	1540	Suffolk	Farmer	Estate village
John Roberts	1505	Herefords	Yeoman	Bridstow
Thomas Brooksbank	1495	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Yeoman dad

12. My 14x Great-Grandparents

There are still five 14x great-grandfathers that can be traced back to the 15th century:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Note
Stephen Paull	1428	Cornwall	Gentleman	Manor, wealthy
Thomas Polkinghorne	1422	Cornwall	Gentleman	Notable family
John Hockin	1460	Cornwall	Yeoman	Notable family
Andrew Linklater	1465	Orkney	Roithman	Gentleman gdad
Richard Brooksbank	1455	Yorkshire	Yeoman	Knight son

Of particular note is Richard Brooksbank, a Yeoman at Warley in Yorkshire, whose son was the Rev Sir John Brooksbank, both a Knight and Curate of Elland. He also had a nephew the Rev Sir Gilbert Brooksbank, who was likewise a Knight and a Priest of Heptonstall but was murdered by a Robert Briggs. The latter being a servant of Sir Richard Tempest, the Steward of the Royal Manor of Wakefield, who was later thrown into the Tower of London where he died of the plague.

13. My Earliest Ancestors

These are the only four families that can clearly be traced any further back:

Name	Birth	Birthplace	Occupation	Generation
William Hockin	1400	Cornwall	Yeoman	16x ggfather
Christe Linklater	1400	Orkney	Gentleman	16x ggfather
Roger Polkinghorne	1290	Cornwall	Gentleman	19x ggfather
Thomas Brooksbank	1240	Yorkshire	Yeoman	21x ggfather

So, we have traced our ancestors as far back as possible to the 13th and 14th centuries. As discussed elsewhere the Fiddian surname may derive originally from the Latin name Vivianus and was probably introduced by the Normans after the invasion in 1066. The Linklater family were probably originally Vikings who settled in Orkney over 1000 years ago and so may originally have come from Norway. The Normans too have Viking ancestry and it is likely that we have more than one link back to them. Nevertheless many of our earliest ancestors have surnames that derive from place names in England and so much of our ancestry is undoubtedly English (British) dating back to the Anglo-Saxons. A large proportion of our maternal ancestry is clearly from Yorkshire but back far enough even this was once part of the Danelaw (as were Norfolk and Cambridge).

As far as I know I am the only descendant in our line of the family to have had their DNA tested but my results are interesting. They indicate a strong British ancestry with 80% of my DNA coming from this region, but 12% of my DNA is of Scandinavian origin, 4% is from West Europe (France and Germany) and 2% is from the Iberian Peninsula (Spain and Portugal). This certainly seems to fit with my ancestry as detailed above and whilst the smaller values would require confirmation I am happy to conclude that we are in large part of English stock with a contribution from the Vikings.
